Postponement—The above sale has been postponed until Saturday, January 27th.

FRANK BLETHEN, Sec'y.

Frank Blethen is now the agent for the celebrated Victor bicycle, which he sells at cash or on the installment plan. Opp. post.

ALL SORTS.

The forecast for Tuesday is snow and colder.

Some excellent scores were made at the range Sunday.

Yesterday and Sunday were pleasant enough for anybody.

A negro rapist was burned at the stake in Missouri yesterday.

Miss Jennie Shaw, of Humboldt, a sister to Mrs. Chas. Slingerland, is visiting at the Hot Springs.

Corbett—through Brady his manager—just seems to be scared to death that Mitchell isn't going to fight him.

Foster predicts a storm in this section about the close of the 25th, a cold wave about the 29th, and a warm wave about the 24th.

Some Virginia hoodlums blinded a Chinaman with lime Saturday night and then robbed him. But of course nothing will be done to them.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewald passed through from Virginia Sunday night, en route to Selma, Cal., where they reside. Miss Emma Haas, a sister of Mrs. Lewald accompanied them.

A startling political sensation was created in Mississippi a few days ago. When the legislature assembled in Jackson, out of about 100 members elected as Democrats 25 of them went into the Populist caucus and declared themselves out of the Democratic party.

A Hint to Smokers.

The following suggestive letter has been received by Daniel Meyer:

San Francisco, Jan. 19, 1894.

Daniel Meyer, Esq., City; DEAR SIR:—"Necessaries before luxury." I spend weekly $2.50 for cigars. I will leave off smoking for one week and donate the amount saved for the unemployed. The rest from smoking will be beneficial to me, and, as every little helps a good cause, find inclosed check for $2.50. If every man in San Francisco would donate the amount he spends for cigars and drinks for one day only, there need be no hungry men in this town. I remain yours very truly,

LEON LEMOS.

He donated the money to the fund for the unemployed.

The Big Fight.

Jacksonville, Jan. 22.—W. A. Brady, Corbett's manager, arrived here from Mayport this morning. He said: "I feel certain now, as always that Mitchell does not want to fight. If he should get into the ring, which now seems less probable than ever before, he will do so merely to save the $5,000 forfeit and the $2,000 which I wagered him that he would not appear in the ring. The moment the men shake hands Mitchell will do one of two things, either deliberately foul Corbett or quit after the first round."

Hobbies for Hayseeds.

A man from the Bay was telling a crowd of boys Sunday that so many people were jumping off the ferry-boats lately, that each boat had special officers whose business it was to spot people who looked flighty or were liable to become frightened or insane while on the boats, and hobble and chain them to the deck. Joe Savage was in the crowd and said: "Wa-all, you ha-et, I would'nt ha-et 'em git outter me."

DIED.

CONTELLA—In Virginia city, Jan. 22, Louise A. Contella, a native of G. Hill, Nev., aged 18 years, 10 months and 13 days.

Deceased had a host of friends in Carson, and was a sister to Bob Contella.

A Birth.

The wife of Chas. Slingerland, of Shaw's Hot Springs, presented him a girl Saturday night, and Chas. is consequently happy. This shows the beneficial results of the Hot Springs.

Fall and Winter Clothing.

John Henderson, representing Wanamaker & Brown, of Philadelphia, Pa., will be at the Arlington House, January 21, 22, and 23 with a full line of samples of gent's and boy's clothing and furnishing goods.

The public are respectfully requested to call and examine goods and prices and be convinced that they can save fifty (50) per cent of the prices usually paid.

Perfect satisfaction guaranteed.

A Wonderful Statue.

On Market Street, San Francisco, a wonderful and interesting exhibition can be seen for ten cents. After you enter and a sufficient crowd has congregated to suit the management, two curtains are drawn aside and the spectators behold, on a table, a bust statue of a woman, to all appearances done in clay.

The showman explains that it is a figure carved from clay by a sculptor of Italy, who was so struck with the beauty of the work, that he wished it was alive. As he speaks he steps to one side and the statue undergoes a change. It begins to take the color of a live woman, its eyes open, the chest heaves, the veins throb and swell, and to all appearances it becomes alive.

Then the showman announces that the sculptor's wife grew jealous and wished that the living statue would return to clay.

As he says this the color leaves the cheeks, the eyes close, the breathing stops, and the spectators again behold what seems to be a lifeless figure in clay. The curtains are then closed, and the wondering crowd disperses.

Of course it is a deception, but whether it is really a live woman, who has wonderful control over herself, or a clever piece of machinery, we are unable to state.

The Crow Fund.

The purse for young Crow is growing steadily. The following letter was received yesterday:

WINNEMUCCA, Nev., Jan. 20 '94.
ED. APPEAL, Carson Nev; SIR:—You will find inclosed fifty cents to be applied to the fund for the boy who saved the seven children from drowning in the Carson river, recently, which I send you with the request that you inform me whether or not the boy smokes cigarettes. As I have been searching for several years for a man or boy that smokes cigarettes, that is capable of doing anything good worthy of mention, or if you know of any other boy or man of this description please inform me; he would be a great attraction at the Mid-winter fair.

Respectfully yours,

S. J. ANDERSON.

The APPEAL is informed that the boy does not use tobacco or liquor in any form.

The fund stands as follows:
Previously acknowledged...$31 00
T. J. Edwards..... 50
Janitor Postoffice..... 50
Rodger Crow..... 50
Cash..... 50
Jennie Forrest..... 50
S. C. Anderson..... 50
Bob Grimmon..... 50

A Financial Statement.

Payments made to laborers at the Park by the Citizens' Committee for the unemployed:

The above gives a good idea of the work being done for the unemployed in San Francisco.

The dispatches announce that there are 21 federal office-holders in the departments at Washington credited to Nevada, when she is only entitled to 11. The fact is, there are but two rightfully belonging to Nevada—Paul Roux of Eureka, and a young man named Norcross from Reno. The others are trading on Nevada's good name.—Free Press.

The Free Press forgets C. D. Van Duzer of Reno, the Land Agent for Nevada.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that Mr. Bassett is no longer selling tomatoes for Mrs. Coronado. Roseles Valenswella is now peddling tomatoes for Mrs. Coronado.

Eureka hams only 13cts per pound at Chas. H. Kelly's, Arlington Block.

COAST NEWS.

Chris Evans' pursuers have given up their pursuit.

There is little hope of securing the bodies of Hart and Sabine, drowned in the Austin Creek disaster, until the water subsides.

Clarence Stewart, the missing wealthy resident of Riverside, has been found at Ventura. His mind had become somewhat unbalanced.

W. S. Loyd, who had been a cattleman in Montana and has brothers in Bangor, Maine, attempted suicide at Sacramento Saturday by eating an apple poisoned by strychnine.

H. O. Steele, a brother of J. D. and C. A. Steele of Los Angeles, committed suicide Saturday in the barn of J. D. Steele. He was addicted to the morphine habit. He was seventy-four.

Mrs. W. B. Armstrong, at Seattle, suffering from neuralgia, took a vial of chloroform to bed with her. During the night her child got possession of the vial, drank the contents, and died from the effects.

A Santa Fe freight was wrecked Saturday near Rincon, twenty miles south of Riverside, by a landslide. The engineer and fireman were hurt badly, the former seriously. All traffic was suspended until some time Sunday.

Captain F. L. Bangs of Seattle surrendered himself to the United States authorities and confessed to having scuttled the trading schooner Mary L. Parker, of which he was captain, to obtain the insurance. She sunk off Race Rocks, in the straits, Dec. 29, 1893.

Mrs. C. Galeri of Los Angeles shot and seriously wounded her husband Saturday. The husband endeavored to force her to go on the streets and play an accordion, as has been his custom for some time past. She objected as she is in delicate health. A quarrel ensued with the above result.

The Grand Jury at San Bernardino had indicted Sheriff Booth and ex-Sheriff E. C. Seymour on the charge of having sworn falsely to bills against the State for the transportation of prisoners sentenced to State Prison and insane asylums, and the Grand Jury report estimates that these officers have secured in this manner $2000 a year in excess of what they were legally entitled to.

Saturday night one of the large reservoirs at Pasadena, belonging to the Pasadena Improvement Company, located at Altadena, a mile north of the Terminal Railway tracks, broke and the water rushed out, doing thousands of dollars' worth of damage. The flood cut a ditch averaging over 200 feet wide and over a mile long, and in its course swept away orange groves, grain fields and railroad tracks. The loss to orchardists and grain farmers will be very large, and it is likely to be brought home to the owners of the reservoir, as it is claimed the break occurred through its faulty construction.

The Midwinter Appeal.
